

Aisha School

Women's Center, Islamic Center of Kent, 20857 108th Avenue, Kent, WA 98031
425.390.4198 • www.aishaschool.org • info@aishaschool.org

What is Aisha School?

Aisha School is an after-school Qur'an tutoring and Islamic Studies Program for girls ages 4 and up. We take boys up to 6 years of age. We are located at the Women's Center of the Islamic Center of Kent and operate 3 days a week: Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, 4:30 pm - 6:15 pm.

Why Aisha School?

- Outstanding curriculum with focus on one-on-one Qur'an recitation with tajweed for each child.
- Excellent qualified teachers to provide a strong Islamic foundation for your child.
- A multicultural and nurturing environment where the staff welcomes the children with enthusiasm and positive energy, and create a warm and friendly atmosphere so your child is excited to learn.

What will your child learn at Aisha School?

Aisha School has a very interactive curriculum where your child gets an opportunity to participate in classroom discussions and experience healthy competition. Our comprehensive curriculum makes the subjects practical in every day life using authentic instructional models. This provides more effective learning that prepares our children as strong muslims living in the modern society.

How do I enroll my child?

Stop by Aisha School during our business hours, Monday, Tuesday or Thursday 4:30 pm - 6:15 pm to personally experience our environment and discuss your child's needs with one of our teachers or visit our website at www.aishaschool.org and submit your application online.